CAUTION

On March 29, 2019, at approximately 12:45 p.m., an unidentified Black male entered the BB&T Bank located at 3202 S. Lancaster Road, Dallas, Texas. The suspect approached the teller window after waiting in line and passed a note to the teller stating he had a gun and demanded money in a bag in 100s, 50s, 20s. The teller, who was behind bullet proof glass, hit the panic button. The suspect realized the teller hit the button and fled the location with the note. The same subject attempted to rob the Wells Fargo Bank located at 3411 Inwood Road, Dallas, Texas, at 2:25 p.m. the same day.
